

Introduction to Thinking Skills

Activity A

Instructions : Match the definition of thinking skills in the right column to the proper categories in the left column.

- | | |
|---------------------------------|--|
| _____ 1. Decision marking | a. Producing unique, new ideas. |
| _____ 2. Problem solving | b. Using clear, reasonable, sensible thought processes. |
| _____ 3. Logical thinking | c. Taking in information, making sense of it, integrating it with existing knowledge, learning it, and evaluating and applying it to new situations. |
| _____ 4. Critical thinking | d. Selecting an action, idea, or object from among several choices by weighing and evaluating each choice. |
| _____ 5. Creative thinking | e. Dealing with unresolved conflicts or situations that require change or adjustment. |
| _____ 6. Information processing | f. Evaluating ideas and info carefully (or deliberately) to judge their merit or value. |